

Thanks

What better opportunity than this thesis that marks completion of university studies, to be dedicated to the memory of my father, and to whom was and still the source of my inspiration and my courage, my dear mother.

It is also good opportunity to express a sincere thanks to my supervisors Professor BOUDERAH Brahim and Doctor ASSAS Ouarda for having supervised and guided throughout my project.

My sincere thanks also go to all jury members for the honor of their judgment and agreeing my work. Not forgetting my two brothers and sister for their constant encouragement throughout my journey, and all persons who, directly or indirectly, contributed to the realization of this project.
